No Discrimination or Harassment

10.03 Subject to the Employee Development Article of this Collective Agreement, during the probationary period the Employer shall provide a performance appraisal of each Probationary Employee at least once to review her performance to date, including any areas that required improvement. If the Probationary Employee thinks her appraisal is unfair she may request and shall be granted a further meeting with the Administrator. It is understood that such performance reviews are not grievable.
During the probationary period an Employee shall not receive any benefits, vacation, sick leave, leave of absence or any other benefits except for those allowed under the Alberta Employment Standards Code or as outlined below.

Subject to Article 10.06, an Employee who has completed six (6) calendar months employment but who has not completed her probationary period shall be credited with appropriate sick leave from date of hire and be eligible to receive such sick leave after the aforementioned six (6) calendar months.

A Regular Employee’s Seniority Date shall be the date on which a regular or temporary Employee’s continuous service in Bethany- Harvest Hills’ employ commenced within the bargaining unit, including all prior periods of service as Casual, Temporary or Regular Employee contiguous to present Regular employment.

Seniority shall not apply during the probationary period; however, once the probationary period has been completed seniority shall be credited from the seniority date established pursuant to this Article.

Seniority shall be considered in determining:

(b) layoffs and recalls, subject to the provisions specified in the Layoff and Recall Article;

(c) promotions and transfers and in filling vacancies within the bargaining unit subject to the provisions specified in the Recruitment and Selection Article

Seniority shall be considered broken, all rights forfeited, and there shall be no obligation to rehire:
(a) when the employment relationship is terminated by either the Employer or the Regular Employee;

(b) upon the expiry of twelve (12) months following the date of layoff, if during which time the Employee has not been recalled to work;

(c) if a Regular Employee does not return to work on recall, as provided in the Layoff and Recall Article.

11.04 Within three (3) months of the signing date of this Collective Agreement the Employer will post on the Bulletin Board provided pursuant to the provisions of the Bulletin Board Article, a seniority list containing the name and seniority date of each Regular Employee in chronological order. The seniority list will be updated by the Employer not less frequently than every six (6) months thereafter. Copies of said seniority lists will be provided to the Union following posting. The Union shall have one (1) month in which to take issue with the seniority list, otherwise the seniority list will be deemed to be correct.

11.05 Should a difference arise regarding an Employee's seniority, the Employer will provide the Employee with the information necessary to establish accurate seniority.

11.06 In the event seniority dates are the same, any disputes arising between two (2) Employees with the same date as they relate to layoffs and recall shall be resolved by a coin toss. If the dispute involves three (3) or more Employees with the same seniority date, then numbered cards will be used to determine the order of seniority

ARTICLE 12
Hours of Work

12.01 Regular hours of work for Full-time Employees, exclusive of meal periods shall be:

(a) seven point seven five (7.75) consecutive hours per day;

(b) thirty-eight point seven five (38.75) hours per week averaged over one complete cycle of the shift schedule.

12.02 Regular hours of work for Part-time Employees, exclusive of meal periods shall be up to seven point seven five (7.75) consecutive hours in any day. The ratio of work days to non-work days shall not exceed 5:2 in a shift cycle.

12.03 (a) Hours of work for a Casual Employee shall be up to seven point seven five (7.75) hours in a day.

(b) Casual Employees will not be required to work in excess of seven (7) consecutive shifts except by mutual agreement.
A Casual Employee will not be required to work in a manner where the ratio of work days to non-work days exceeds 5:2 averaged over six (6) calendar weeks.

12.04 Schedules

(a) Except in cases of emergency or by mutual agreement between a Regular Employee and the Employer, shift schedules shall provide for:

(i) at least fifteen point five (15.50) hours off duty between shifts;

(ii) at least two (2) consecutive days of rest;

(iii) a minimum of days of rest on two (2) weekends in a five (5) week period or three (3) weekends in a six (6) week period. “Weekend” shall mean a Saturday and the following Sunday, assuring a minimum of fifty-six (56) hours off duty;

(iv) an Employee shall work a maximum of seven (7) consecutive shifts

(v) no split shifts

Notwithstanding Clause 12.04 (a), the Shift Schedules in effect as of the date of ratification of the memorandum of Agreement are deemed to be contract compliant pursuant to 12.04 (a) ‘by mutual agreement’. Changes to these Shift Schedules are subject to the requirements of the Hours of Work Article (Article 12).

12.05

(a) The Employer, in scheduling shifts, shall take into consideration an Employee’s request for certain shift schedules, subject to the requirements of 12.04.

(b) Shift patterns that may be available are:

(iv) nights only;

(v) evenings and days (rotation);

(vi) nights and evenings (rotation);

(vii) nights and days (rotation);

12.06
(a) Employees shall be aware that, in the course of their regular duties they may be required to work various shifts throughout the twenty-four (24) hour period of the day and the seven (7) days of the week. In order to satisfy operational requirements the Employee in charge may require an Employee to work at another House. Where the Employee has not worked in a particular "House" before, the Employer will ensure they are familiarized with the needs of the residents in that "House" prior to working with the residents.

(b) In defining the first shift of the day it is understood for the purposes of defining weekends and time off that a night shift is considered first shift of the day. However, for ease of understanding of the shift schedule and for ease of Employees’ understanding of when they are to report for work and for proper operation of the scheduling system Bethany - Harvest Hills may consider the first shift of the working day to be the first shift where the start time falls after midnight.

(a) Employees may exchange shifts among themselves, provided that:

(i) the exchange is agreed to in writing, between the affected Employees; and

(ii) prior approval of such exchange has been given by the Employee’s immediate supervisor.

(b) Where such request is made in writing, the Employer’s reply shall also be in writing.

(c) Such exchange shall be recorded on the shift schedule.

(d) Such exchange shall not be deemed a violation of the provisions of this Collective Agreement.

(e) No overtime shall be paid to an Employee who works in excess of the Employee’s regularly scheduled work hours in a two (2) week period as a result of an exchange of shift or for reasons of personal convenience or for time taken off in lieu of overtime by mutual arrangements.

(a) When a Regular Employee reports for work as scheduled and is directed by the Manager to leave and return to work for a later shift, she shall be compensated for the inconvenience by a payment equivalent to three (3) hours pay at her Basic Rate.
When a Casual Employee or a Part-time Employee, working a casual shift, reports for work as scheduled or called and is directed by the Manager to leave as her shift has been cancelled, the Employee shall be compensated for the inconvenience by a payment equivalent to three (3) hours pay at her Basic Rate.

Where an Employee’s scheduled days off are changed without fourteen (14) calendar days notice, the Employee shall be paid at two times (2X) her Basic Rate of Pay for all hours worked on what should otherwise have been her off duty days, except when application of this Article is waived by mutual agreement between the Employee and the Manager.

If, in the course of a posted schedule, the Manager changes an Employee’s scheduled shift, but not her scheduled days off, she shall be paid at the rate of two times (2X) her Basic Rate of Pay for all hours worked during the first shift of the changed schedule, unless fourteen (14) days notice of such change has been given, except when application of this Article is waived by mutual agreement between the Employee and the Manager.

Subject to Articles 12.09 and 12.10 shift schedules shall be posted twelve (12) weeks in advance or such shorter period as is mutually agreed between the Employer and the Local Chapter of AUPE. The Employer shall allow a Local Chapter Representative of the AUPE to reproduce a copy of the posted shift schedule.

A Part-time Employee may work additional shifts.

Where a Part-time Employee volunteers or agrees when requested to work additional shifts, she shall be paid her Basic Rate for such hours, or if applicable, at the overtime rate provided in Article 13 for those hours worked in excess of seven point seven five (7.75) hours in a day.

Where the Employer requires a Part-time Employee to work without her having volunteered or agreed to do so, she shall be paid the applicable overtime rate provided in Article 13.

On the date fixed by proclamation, in accordance with the Daylight Savings Time Act, of conversion to Mountain Standard Time, regular hours of work shall be extended to include the resultant additional hour with additional payment due therefore at the applicable overtime rate. On the date fixed by said Act for the resumption of Daylight Savings Time, the resultant reduction of one hour in the shift involved shall be effected with the appropriate deduction in regular earnings.

Breaks

Regular hours of work shall be deemed to:

include, as scheduled by the Employer, either
(i) two (2) rest periods of fifteen (15) minutes during each full working shift of seven point seven five (7.75) hours, or

(ii) one rest period of thirty (30) minutes during each full working shift of seven point seven five (7.75) hours, the alternative to be applied shall be at the discretion of the Employer.

(b) include, as scheduled by the Employer, one (1) rest period of fifteen (15) minutes during each shift of not less than three point eight-seven (3.87) hours.

Sick Leave

17.01 We recognize that by accepting the terms and conditions of employment, an Employee is committing to meet the expectation of regular attendance at work. However, it is understood that there are times when due to illness or injury, an Employee may not be able to come to work.

17.02 (a) Sick leave is provided by the Employer as a form of insurance, for the purpose of maintaining regular earnings, during absences due to illness or accidents for which compensation is not payable under the Workers' Compensation Act or for quarantine by a Medical Officer of Health.
The Employer recognizes that alcoholism, drug addiction and mental illness, are illnesses which can respond to therapy and treatment, and that absences from work due to such therapy shall be considered sick leave.

17.03 After an Employee has completed her probationary period she shall be allowed a credit for sick leave from the date of employment at the rate of one point five (1.5) working days for each full month of employment up to a maximum credit of one hundred and twenty (120) working days provided however, that an Employee shall not be entitled to apply sick leave credit prior to the completion of her probationary period. (b) Any Employee absenting herself on account of personal illness must notify the Employer on the first (1st) day of illness before the time she would normally report for duty.
(c) Failure to give adequate notice, unless such failure is unavoidable, may result in loss of sick leave benefits for that day of absence.

17.05 Subject to Articles 17.01, 17.02, 17.03 and 17.04 above, an Employee granted sick leave shall be paid, at her Basic Rate of Pay for regularly scheduled shifts absent due to illness, and the number of hours thus paid shall be deducted from her accumulated sick leave credits up to the total amount of her accumulated credits at the time the sick leave commenced.

17.06 Employees may be required to substantiate, in the form prescribed by the Employer, any claim for sick leave. Payment of sick leave benefit shall not be effected until required substantiation has been supplied.
17.07 When an Employee has accrued the maximum sick leave credit of one hundred and twenty (120) working days she shall no longer accrue sick leave credits until such time as her total accumulation is reduced below the maximum. At that time she shall recommence accumulating sick leave credits.

Employees may be required to submit satisfactory proof of such appointment. Employees are expected to make every reasonable effort to schedule such appointments to occur outside their regular hours of work.

17.09 (a) Except as hereinafter provided, sick leave will not be paid in respect of any illness or injury which is incurred during the period of the scheduled vacation once vacation leave has commenced. In the event that the illness or injury prevents the Employee from resuming her duties at the conclusion of the vacation period and she has substantiated her claim for sick leave, income continuance thereafter will be in accordance with Article 17.05. Notwithstanding the foregoing, should an Employee demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Employer that she was admitted to a hospital as an "in-patient" during the course of her vacation, she shall be deemed to be on sick leave for the period of the stay in hospital, subject to the provisions of Article 17.05. Vacation time not taken as a result of such stay in hospital shall be rescheduled to a mutually agreed later time frame.

(b) In the event an illness or injury preventing an Employee from performing her usual duties, occurs prior to the scheduled start of the vacation period, and provided proper substantiation of her claim to sick leave has been provided, the absence on account of the illness or injury will be treated as sick leave pursuant to Article 17.05 until the Employee has recovered sufficiently to permit the resumption of her usual duties. Time not utilized as vacation leave as a result of the above illness or injury will be rescheduled to a mutually agreed later time frame.

17.10 Upon request of an Employee but not more frequently than once a year, the Employer shall advise an Employee of her accrued sick leave credits.

17.11 For the purpose of computing sick leave accumulation, the following shall be counted as working days:

In such a case the Union agrees to waive the posting provisions of the Collective Agreement.

ARTICLE 19

Grievance Procedure/Problem Resolution Process

19.01 The problem resolution process is a grievance and arbitration process that is designed to provide a formal mechanism for the resolution of disagreements that arise between the Employer, Employees and the Union. This mechanism is intended to maintain and improve working relationships between the Parties.

19.02 The process is designed to allow for a timely and thorough investigation and resolution of grievances.

19.03 A “grievance” is defined as: any difference arising out of an interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of this collective agreement, policy, or procedure or unfair treatment.

19.04 “Days” means calendar days, exclusive of Saturday, Sunday and Named Holidays.

19.05 An Employee has the right to request that a Representative from the Union be present to assist them at any stage of the process.

19.06 Grievances can be categorized as follows:

(a) an individual grievance is a dispute affecting one (1) Employee. Such complaint shall be initiated at Step 1 of the Problem Resolution process except in the case of suspension or dismissal, which will commence at Step 2, or;

(b) a group grievance is a dispute affecting two (2) or more Employees. Such complaint shall be initiated at Step 2. A group complaint shall list all Employees affected by the complaint, and the results of the complaint shall apply, proportionately if applicable, to all Employees listed on the original complaint, or;

(c) a policy grievance is a dispute between the Parties which, due to its nature, is not properly the subject of an individual or group complaint. If the complaint is a Union complaint, it shall initiate at Step 2. If the complaint is an Employer complaint, it shall initiate with the President of the Union.

19.07 Should the Employee or the Union fail to comply with any time limit in the problem resolution process, the grievance will be considered to be abandoned, unless the Parties have mutually agreed in writing, to extend the time limits.

19.08 Should the Employer fail to comply with any of the time limits in the problem resolution process, the grievance shall automatically move to the next step on the day following the expiry of the particular time limit, unless the Parties have mutually agreed, in writing, to extend the time limits.
During any and all problem resolution proceedings, the Employee shall continue to perform assigned duties, except in cases of suspension or dismissal.

Step One

Employees are expected to discuss and attempt to resolve problems with their Supervisor on an informal basis. If an Employee has a grievance, it is expected that the Employee will first discuss it with the Supervisor and attempt to resolve the problem at that step.

Step Two

If the matter has not been resolved at Step One, the Employee may, within ten (10) days of receipt of the written reply from the Supervisor, present the grievance in writing to the Administrator. A meeting shall be held between the Parties within ten (10) days of the receipt of the Step Two grievance and the Administrator shall reply in writing within ten (10) days of the meeting.

The Party receiving the notification shall respond in an effort to agree on the selection of a mutually acceptable sole Arbitrator. The Party requesting the use of an Arbitration board shall indicate to the other Party within ten (10) days of the grievance being advanced to arbitration, their nominee to the Arbitration board. The nominees shall then select an acceptable Chairman.

19.18 After selection, a single Arbitrator or the Arbitration Board shall meet with the Parties within twenty-one (21) days and hear such evidence as the Parties may desire to present; assure a full and fair hearing, and shall render a decision, in writing to the Parties within fourteen (14) days after the completion of the hearing.
