This Agreement made this ____ day of __________, 2016.

BETWEEN

The Edmonton Immigrant Services Association
(hereinafter called "the Employer")

of the First Part

AND

The Alberta Union of Provincial Employees, Local 118/021
(hereinafter called "the Union") of the Second Part

WHEREAS the Union has the sole right to negotiate on behalf of the Employer's said Employees.

AND WHEREAS the Parties are mutually desirous of entering into an Agreement as defined in the Act containing provisions with reference to rates of pay, hours of work and other terms or conditions of employment and providing a procedure for the consideration of grievances and the settlement of disputes.

NOW THEREFORE THIS AGREEMENT WITNESSETH that in consideration of the premises the Parties herein mutually covenant and agree with each other as follows:
ARTICLE 1

Interpretation

1.01 (a) "Anniversary Date", for the purpose of salary increments and seniority means:

(i) In the case of an Employee whose employment commenced between the first (1st) and fifteenth (15th) day inclusive of any month, the first (1st) day of that calendar month, or

(ii) In the case of an Employee whose employment commenced between the sixteenth (16th) and last day in any month, the first (1st) day of the following calendar month.

(b) "Employee" means any and all person(s) employed to perform work and functions in accordance with Article 17, covered by this agreement and whose service is designated as:

(i) "Regular Full-time", is an employee who occupies an established position of 35 hours per week and who has successfully completed the specified probationary period.

(ii) "Regular Part-time", is an employee who occupies an established position of less than 35 hours per week and who has successfully completed the specified probationary period.

(iii) "Temporary", is an employee hired for full-time or part-time work for a period of 3 months or less. If the employment period exceeds 3 months, the employee shall become a regular employee and deemed to have successfully completed the specified probationary period.

(iv) "Term definite", is an employee hired for full-time or part-time work for a period of more than three months and less than 1 year, including cover offs for approved leaves of absences, Long Term Disabilities, etc. If the employment period exceeds 1 year, the employee shall become a regular employee and deemed to have successfully completed the specified probationary period.

(v) "Casual", is an employee hired on an informal basis for seasonal or non-core work that is not covered by specific job descriptions. Casual employees shall not replace or reduce the hourly schedule of any regular Employee.
(c) Exclusions

This Agreement will not apply to persons who are agreed between the parties to be excluded from the bargaining unit, or who have been determined by the Labour Relations Board to be excluded under the provisions of [Section 11] of the Labour Relations Code.

The following persons shall not be included in the collective agreement:

“Volunteer” mean persons who contribute to EISA by donating specific services without receiving compensation. Volunteers shall not replace or reduce the hours of work, for any Employee.

Any disagreement concerning the interpretation and application of ‘volunteer’ shall be subject to determination by the Labour Relations Board.

(d) Throughout this Agreement, a word used in the masculine gender applies also in the feminine gender and a word used in the singular applies also in the plural, unless the context otherwise requires.

(e) “Union Representative”, means a representative from the Union authorized by the Union to act on behalf of the Employee.

(f) “Employer” or “E.I.S.A” means Edmonton Immigrant Services Association and is a not-for-profit organization that is registered as a charitable society.

(g) The “parties” are the Employer and the Union.

(h) “Chapter” means a unit of employees that are members of the Alberta Union of Provincial Employees.

ARTICLE 1A

APPLICATION OF AGREEMENT

Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the application of the terms and conditions of the Agreement is as follows:

1A.01 Regular Full-time Employees shall be granted all the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

1A.02 Regular Part-time Employees shall be granted, on a pro-rated basis, all the terms and conditions of this Agreement which are applicable.
1A.03 Temporary Employees shall be granted all the terms and conditions of this Agreement except that the following Articles shall not apply:

(a) paid holidays pursuant to Article 23, be allowed in addition to his regular wage earnings pay at 5.2% of his regular wage earnings, and for working on a paid holiday, pay at time and one-half his regular hourly rate for the first two (2) hours worked up to the equivalent of full normal daily hours and double time thereafter; and

(b) annual vacation leave pursuant to Article 28, be allowed in addition to his regular wage earnings, pay at 6% of his regular wage earnings.

ARTICLE 2

MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

2.01 The Parties to this Collective Agreement recognize and affirm that the Employer reserves and retains all rights and responsibilities not specifically restricted or limited by the terms of this Collective Agreement. Where policies or procedures adopted by the Employer conflict with this Collective Agreement, the provisions of the Collective Agreement shall apply.

ARTICLE 3

UNION RECOGNITION

3.01 The Employer recognizes the Union as the exclusive bargaining agent for all Employees covered by this Agreement. It is recognized that this Collective Agreement may be amended or modified only by agreement in writing between the Parties.

3.02 The Parties agree that there shall be no discrimination or coercion exercised or practiced with respect to any Employee for reason of membership, non-membership or legitimate activity in the Union.

3.03 (a) The Employer will provide specific bulletin board space for use of the Union in the staff room or in any other area which is mutually agreeable, should the staff room become unsuitable. Bulletin board space shall be used for the posting of Union information directed to its members.

(b) The Employer shall allow employees the use of the electronic mail system, subject to normal Employer protocols.

(c) Local/Chapter Union membership meetings may be held on Employer premises, subject to prior approval of the Employer. Such approval shall not be unreasonably denied.
An Employee shall have the right to wear or display the recognized insignia of the Union, however, no such insignia larger than a lapel pin shall be worn on clothing or uniforms, nor shall an insignia be displayed on Employer's equipment or facilities.

Each Party will designate an officer and all correspondence between the Parties arising out of this Agreement or incidental thereto shall pass to and from such designated officers and/or a Union Representative.

The Employer recognizes the right of the Union to elect Employees as Union Stewards to act on behalf of Employees in conformance with the provisions of this Agreement.

Employees may be represented by a Union Steward or Union Staff member at any step of the grievance procedure and when viewing their Personal File.

The Employer recognizes the Union Stewards as official representatives of the Union.

A currently maintained list of Union Stewards shall be supplied to the Employer by the Union.

Members who have been appointed as Union Stewards may wear a lapel pin denoting such position.

ARTICLE 4

UNION MEMBERSHIP AND DUES CHECKOFF

All Employees covered by this Agreement shall be required to pay Union dues. The Employer shall, therefore, as a condition of employment, deduct each month the amount of the Union dues as set by the Union from time to time from the pay of all Employees covered by this Agreement. Union dues shall be pro-rated for Employees regularly working less than full-time.

The Employer shall remit Union dues deducted from the pay of all Employees to the Union by the first (1st) working day after the fifteenth (15th) calendar day in the following month. Where an accounting adjustment is necessary to correct an over or under payment of dues, it shall be effected in the succeeding month.

Particulars, identifying each Employee in a printed form showing:

(a) the Employee’s name;
(b) mailing address;
(c) classification;
(d) site;
(e) status;
(f) hourly rate of pay;
(g) the amount of deduction for each Employee;
(h) the Employee’s gross pay; and
(i) long term absence status (if applicable).

4.03 The Union shall advise the Employer, in writing, of any change in the amount of dues to be deducted from the Employees covered by this Agreement. Such notice shall be communicated to the Employer at least thirty (30) days prior to the effective date of the change.

ARTICLE 5

SENIORITY

5.01 Seniority shall mean continuous employment from the last day of hire. Seniority shall not apply during the probationary period, however, once the probationary period has been completed, seniority shall be credited from the date of employment.

5.02 Seniority shall be considered in determining:

(a) Preference of Vacation time; in accordance with Article 28;

(b) Layoffs and recalls subject to the qualifications specified in Article 7;

(c) Promotions and transfers in filling vacancies within the Bargaining Unit subject to the qualifications specified in Article 15.

5.03 Seniority shall be considered broken, all rights forfeited, and there shall be no obligation to rehire:

(a) When employment is terminated and the Employee is not reinstated by arbitration;

(b) If an Employee does not return to work on recall as provided in Article 7 and does not provide a reason to the Employer within seven (7) days.

5.04 The Employer agrees to provide the Union with an up-to-date seniority list on a quarterly (every three months) basis, upon request of the Union.

5.05 Seniority shall be established on the basis of a Regular Employee's service with the Employer commencing with his date of employment. During any period of leave of absence without pay in excess of sixty (60) calendar days, an Employee shall cease to accrue seniority, unless it is for an approved Leave of Absence.

5.06 A Regular Employee who resigns from the service of the Employer and is subsequently re-employed shall, if the break is more than thirty (30) days, accumulate seniority only from the date of such re-employment.
ARTICLE 6

PROBATION PERIOD

6.01 Each new Employee shall serve a probationary period of three (3) months from date of hire. Where a probationary Employee is unsatisfactory in the opinion of the Employer, such an Employee may be dismissed without notice and with recourse to the grievance procedure at Step I, except that it shall not be a subject of Arbitration at Level III.

6.02 The period of probation may be extended by written agreement between the Union and the Employer for a maximum of three (3) months. The Employee shall receive all the benefits of this Collective Agreement after the initial three (3) months of employment.

ARTICLE 7

LAYOFF AND RECALL

7.01 Should the Employer deem it necessary to reduce the working force, the Employer shall notify Employees who are to be laid off in the following manner:

(a) if the layoff is expected to last four (4) weeks or less, the Employee shall receive fourteen (14) calendar days notice;

(b) if the layoff is expected to last more than four (4) weeks, the Employee shall receive twenty-eight (28) calendar days notice.

7.02 For purposes of this Article, the following definitions shall apply:

(a) “layoff” – a temporary separation from employment with anticipated future recall;

(b) “similar Employees” – two (2) or more Employees having a common status performing the same or similar functions within a classification.

7.03 If an Employee is laid off pursuant to Clause 7.01 (a) and the Employee is not recalled within four (4) weeks, he shall receive pay equal to the additional fourteen (14) calendar days notice.

7.04 When similar Employees are to be laid off, the Employer shall lay off such Employees in reverse order of their seniority, providing those retained are qualified and able to perform the work remaining to be done.

7.05 An Employee who is laid off may elect to maintain coverage under contributory plans specified in Article 22 for the period of layoff provided that such coverage is available and provided that the Employee makes prior arrangements with the Employer to pay the full premium costs.
7.06 When increasing the work force, recalls shall be carried out in order of seniority by Salary Group except that Employees required to utilize special skills, training, or knowledge, shall be considered separately. The method of recall shall be by telephone and, if contact with the Employee is not accomplished, a registered letter shall be sent to the Employee’s last known place of residence. The Employee so notified will return to work as soon as possible, but not later than seven (7) calendar days following the date of the telephone contact, or the date of delivery of the letter.

7.07 No new Employees will be hired where there are other Employees on layoff and waiting recall, who are within the same Salary Group and who have the ability to perform the work required.

7.08 Other than for the pre-payment of certain contributory benefit premiums and the continuation of the seniority held at the time of layoff, the Employee’s rights while on layoff shall be limited to the right of recall.

7.09 A regular Employee shall be considered terminated when he does not return from layoff as required, except that the Employer may extend this period by written notice to the Employee when the Employee requests.

7.10 If an Employee resigns after a minimum of three (3) months layoff, he shall be eligible for one (1) week’s pay, plus benefits as per Article 7.07.

7.11 Where operational requirements permit, an Employee will be allowed time off with pay during the notice of layoff period to explore other job opportunities.

ARTICLE 8

EMPLOYEE MANAGEMENT ADVISORY COMMITTEE

8.01 The Employer and the Union agree that there shall be an Employee Management Advisory Committee consisting of not more than four (4) persons, half of whom shall represent the Employer and half of whom shall be Employees representing the Union.

8.02 The representatives of the Employer on EMAC shall be those persons or alternates designated by the Employer from time to time.

8.03 The representatives of the Union on EMAC shall be those Employees or Employee alternates designated by the Union from time to time.

8.04 The Parties mutually agree that the representatives of the Employer and the Union on EMAC should be the persons in authority whose membership should be as constant as reasonably possible with a minimum of alteration or substitution.

8.05 The senior representative of the Employer and the senior representative of the Union shall alternate as Chairperson on EMAC.
The Co-Chairperson shall each be entitled to vote upon any matter coming before EMAC but shall have no second or casting vote.

Unless otherwise mutually agreed, the EMAC shall meet on a quarterly basis (every three months), at a mutually acceptable hour and date. The Co-Chairperson may mutually call a special meeting to deal with urgent matters.

It is the function of EMAC to consider matters of mutual concern affecting the relationship of the Employer to its Employees and to advise and make recommendations to the Employer and the Union with a view to resolving difficulties and promoting harmonious relations between the Employer and its Employees.

Either the Employer or the Union may have experts or advisers present at meetings of EMAC to make submissions to or to assist EMAC in the consideration of any specific problem but such persons shall not have the right to vote. Each party shall give the other reasonable advance notice of the anticipated presence of such experts or advisers.

A minimum of two (2) meetings shall be held during the contract year.

ARTICLE 9

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Employer, the Board of Directors, and the Union agree that there will be a minimum of two occasions per year where all Employees will be invited to attend a meeting with the Board of Directors. The Employer shall provide reasonable notice, complete with a copy to AUPE, when requesting Employees attendance at such meetings. The intent is to provide an informal setting where information can be freely exchanged between Board members and Employees.

The Chairperson of the Board or designate, and the Chairperson of the Component shall agree on the nature of the meetings.

Employees, and the Staff Representative, shall be welcome to attend all Board meetings, except for the portion of the meeting where the Board deems to be in-camera.

ARTICLE 10

EMPLOYER - UNION RELATIONS

The Employer will grant Union Staff Officers access to its premises when negotiating or meeting with representatives of the Employer, or when investigating an Employee’s complaint or grievance at a mutually agreed upon time, or when requested. Access will not be unreasonably denied.
On a quarterly basis, the Employer will provide the Union with the names of contact people with whom it may arrange Employee appointments for the purpose of investigating grievances, and the Union shall provide a current list of Union Staff Officers and Union Stewards.

ARTICLE 11
DISCIPLINARY ACTION

11.01 The Employer agrees to notify the Employee of any interview of a disciplinary nature and to indicate:

(a) the Employee's right to be accompanied by a Union Representative; and

(b) that the meeting is to be disciplinary in nature.

11.02 An Employee who has been subject to disciplinary action may, after twenty-four (24) months of continuous service from the date the disciplinary action was invoked, request that his personal file be purged of any record of disciplinary action. Such request will be granted providing:

(a) the Employee's file does not contain any further record of disciplinary action during the last twenty-four (24) month period; and,

(b) the disciplinary action is not the subject of an unresolved grievance.

11.03 No disciplinary measure shall be imposed on any Employee without just cause. Notice of discipline shall be in writing and shall indicate the incident or incidents giving rise to the discipline. Such notice shall be issued within fourteen (14) calendar days of the Employer becoming aware of the incident giving rise to the discipline.

11.04 Access to, and a copy of, an Employee's personal file shall be provided to the Employee or his authorized representative, upon request and within a reasonable time, once in every year and in the event of a grievance. The Employee may request a representative of the Union to be present at the time of such examination.

11.05 When an Employee has grievances a disciplinary action and a designated officer has either allowed the grievance or reduced the penalty levied against the grievor, the personal file of the Employee shall be amended to reflect this action provided that this action results in the abandonment of the grievance. Where the grievor appeals the disciplinary action to arbitration, the award of the Arbitration Board shall be final and binding upon the Employer and the Employee, and the personal file of the Employee shall be amended to reflect that award.
ARTICLE 12

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

12.01 (a) Grievance means the difference between the Parties to or the persons bound by this Collective Agreement as to the interpretation, application, operation, contravention or alleged contravention of this Agreement and shall be dealt with progressively in the following steps.

(b) Time is of the essence in the proper handling of all grievances. Any grievance not completed within the hereinafter agreed upon time frame by the grievor will be considered to have been abandoned. Any grievance not answered by the Employer within the time frame set out may proceed to the next step. A request for any time extension to handle any particular grievance will only be valid if the extension document is agreed in advance, signed by the Employer and the Union and shall be applicable only to that specified grievance and shall be without prejudice to any further granting of any other request either for that grievance or any other grievance.

(c) When a grievance or response is processed by registered mail, the grievance or response shall be deemed to have been submitted on the day on which is was registered.

(d) When a grievance or reply is delivered by hand it will be dated the date it was delivered.

12.02 FIRST STEP:

The aggrieved Employee shall present his grievance in writing to the Executive Director within fourteen (14) calendar days of the date the Employee became aware of or reasonably ought to have become aware of the incident giving rise to the grievance. The Executive Director shall provide his response, in writing, within fourteen (14) calendar days of receipt of the grievance. Where mutually agreed, the aggrieved Employee may meet with the Executive Director to discuss his grievance. At such meeting, the Employee may be accompanied by a representative of the Union.

SECOND STEP:

In the event that the grievance is not resolved at the First Step, then within fourteen (14) calendar days of the date of the answer of the Executive Director, the aggrieved Employee may advance his grievance to the Chairperson of the Board of the Employer, or his designate.
The Chairperson of the Board, or his designate, shall provide his response, in writing, within fourteen (14) calendar days of receipt of the grievance. Where mutually agreed, the aggrieved Employee may meet with the Chairperson of the Board, or his designate, to discuss his grievance. At such meeting, the Employee may be accompanied by a representative of the Union.

THIRD STEP:

In the event that the grievance is not resolved at the Second Step, within fourteen (14) calendar days of the date of the answer of the Chairperson of the Board, or his designate, the grievance may be referred by the Union to Arbitration. The Arbitration Board shall consist of one (1) member appointed by the Union and one (1) member appointed by the Employer and a third member appointed by the Nominee of the Employer and the nominee of the Union, which person shall act as Chairperson. In the event the nominees cannot agree, the Chairperson shall be appointed by the Alberta Minister of Labour. The Board shall be constituted within fourteen (14) calendar days after the matter has been referred to Arbitration.

12.03 The Arbitration Board may, during the arbitration, proceed in the absence of any party or person who, after notice, fails to attend, or fails to obtain an adjournment.

12.04 The Arbitration Board shall inquire into the grievance and issue an award in writing and the award shall be final and binding upon the Parties and every Employee affected by it.

12.05 Each Party shall be responsible for its own costs of arbitration and for one half (1/2) the cost of the Chairperson.

12.06 The Arbitration Board shall not alter, amend, or change the terms or conditions of this Collective Agreement.

12.07 If the Arbitration Board by its award determines that an Employee has been discharged or otherwise disciplined by the Employer for cause, the Arbitration Board may substitute any penalty for the discharge or discipline that it deems just and reasonable in all circumstances.
ARTICLE 13

ACTING INCUMBENT

13.01 To be eligible for acting incumbency, an Employee shall, upon written request, be required to perform the principal duties of the higher level position for a minimum period of one (1) work day, during which time he may also be required to perform some of the duties of his regular position. On completion of the one (1) day qualifying period in an acting incumbency position, an Employee shall be eligible for acting incumbency pay for the total period of acting incumbency, including the one (1) day qualifying period.

13.02 Where an Employee qualified for acting incumbency pay, he shall receive a premium equivalent to ten (10%) percent of his regular salary, or the pay of the position in which he is acting, whichever is higher.

ARTICLE 14

RESPONSIBILITY PAY

14.01 Where an employee is required by the Executive Director, to perform higher level duties, in addition to some of his/her own regular duties and responsibilities, for a cumulative qualifying period of fifteen (15) days per fiscal year, he will receive a premium of at least thirteen percent (13%) of his regular pay for the period of temporary responsibility including the qualifying period.

After a period of 6 months, a new job description and a job reclassification shall be completed.

ARTICLE 15

PROMOTIONS AND TRANSFERS

15.01 The Employer shall post internally, notice of all vacancies or new positions required to be filled for not less than ten (10) working days before the notice of vacancy or new position is posted externally.

15.02 Subject to Clause 15.05, where vacancies are filled, first consideration shall be given to Employees who are already members of the bargaining unit.

15.03 All applications for transfer or promotion shall be made in writing to such officer as the Employer has designated on the posting.

15.04 When making promotions, transfers and filling vacancies or new positions, the primary considerations shall be skill, training, knowledge and seniority of the Employee.
An Employee who applies for a promotion, transfer, vacancy or new position and who possesses the necessary qualifications and seniority, shall be appointed to the position. In the event that more than one Employee should apply, and they all possess the necessary qualifications as posted, seniority shall govern in the appointment to the position.

Applicants for posted transfers or promotions, shall be informed in writing of their acceptance or rejection within five (5) working days of the date of the decision.

In the event the successful applicant is a current Employee, who proves unsatisfactory in the position, or if the current Employee finds he is unable to perform the duties of the new position during the two (2) month trial period, he shall be returned to his former position, or equivalent position, at the rate of pay he enjoyed before moving to the new position.

Where an Employee is moved to a higher pay position, he shall have his salary adjusted accordingly to the start rate at the higher classification except where the start rate of the higher classification is lower than the Employee's existing rate, in which event the Employee's salary shall be advanced to the next higher level from the existing salary.

Where an Employee is moved to a lower paid position, except as a result of an application for transfer to a lower paid position, his rate of pay at the time of transfer shall be maintained and frozen until it is equal to or lower than the rate of pay applicable to the new position.

Where an Employee is moved to a lower paid position as a result of an application for transfer to a lower paid position, his salary shall be adjusted immediately to the applicable step on the lower pay scale.

ARTICLE 16
TIME OFF FOR UNION BUSINESS

Subject to Clause 16.03, time-off, without loss of regular earnings, will be provided for the following:

(a) A Union Steward and Grievor for time spent in meeting with the Employer to discuss a grievance; and a Union Steward for time spent in meeting with the Employer in a disciplinary interview.

(b) Authorized Union representatives, not to exceed two (2) in number, for time spent meeting with representatives of the Employer at formal Employee Management Committees where matters of mutual concern are discussed.
(c) For time spent meeting with the Employer at formal Safety Committee meetings during normal working hours, and for meetings of the Joint Work Site Health and Safety Committee as provided by the Occupational Health and Safety Act.

16.02 Subject to Clause 16.03, time-off without pay, will be provided for the following:

(a) Members of the Chapter Executive, to administer the Chapter,

(b) Members of the Chapter to attend meetings as required for the preparation for and during the negotiations of a new Collective Agreement,

(c) Members elected as delegates to attend the Annual Convention of the Alberta Union of Provincial Employees,

(d) Members designated as delegates representing the Union at Conventions of other affiliated organizations,

(e) Members elected as representatives of the Union to attend Seminars and Local meetings,

(f) Members of the Provincial Executive of the Union, to attend general meetings which are normally held once every two (2) months on a Saturday,

(g) Members of the following Provincial Executive Standing Committees of the Union to attend regular committee meetings normally held every two (2) months on a week day:

   (i) Union Bargaining Committee
   (ii) Finance Committee
   (iii) Legislative Committee
   (iv) Membership Services Committee
   (v) Occupational Health and Safety Committee
   (vi) Committee on Political Action
   (vii) Anti Privatization Committee
   (viii) Women's Committee
   (ix) Pension Committee
   (x) Ad Hoc Pay Equity Committee
   (xi) Youth Committee

(h) Members of the Union Executive Committee,

(i) Members of the Local’s Negotiating Committee for time spent meeting with representatives of the Employer during these negotiations,
(j) Authorized members of the Local to attend meetings of the Employee Benefits Committee.

16.03 In all of the foregoing provisions, time-off shall be granted providing operational requirements permit. The Union shall provide the Employer with a copy of the request for time-off. Employees shall provide a minimum of five (5) work days' notice when requesting time-off under Clause 16.02; however, consideration shall still be given in cases where the five (5) days notice is not provided. Where such time-off is granted for an indeterminate period, the Employee shall communicate with the Employer on a daily basis in respect to the date of return.

16.04 To facilitate the administration of Clause 16.02 of this Article, the Employer will grant the leave of absence with pay and invoice the Union of the Employee's salary and applicable allowances, or the replacement salary costs, whichever is greater. The Employer shall bill the Union within six (6) months of the date of the leave and the Union shall pay such invoice within a reasonable time period.

ARTICLE 17

CLASSIFICATIONS

17.01 The Employer agrees to maintain a Classification Plan and to provide a complete copy of the Classification Plan to the Union along with any subsequent amendments.

17.02 Employees presently on staff will be provided with a copy of their own job descriptions and classification allocation. New Employees will be provided with this information on or before their first day of work.

17.03 The Employer may alter and/or establish classifications and set salary scales related thereto during the term of this Agreement provided, however, in such an event the Employer shall notify the Union of such alterations and/or new classifications and the proposed compensation related thereto.

17.04 If the proposed compensation is not resolved by the consultation with the Employer, the Union may, within fifteen (15) work days of the date the Union received the notice referred to above, submit the proposed compensation to Arbitration for settlement in accordance with Article 12 - Grievance Procedure. If such fifteen (15) day period elapses without agreement between the Employer and the Union and without a grievance being filed, the compensation proposed by the Employer shall apply.

17.05 The time limits specified in 17.04 may be extended by mutual agreement between the Parties provided such agreement is in writing. A request for extension shall not be unreasonably denied.
17.06 When the Employer establishes new or altered class levels and provides written notice to the Union after notice has been given by either Party to commence Collective Bargaining under Section 57 of the Labour Relations Code, the provisions of Clauses 17.03 and 17.04 shall not apply. The rates of pay and other issues shall be subject to collective bargaining under the code.

17.07 When an Employee considers that the duties or responsibilities of his position have been materially changed since the last review and the appropriate supervisor has not requested any review, the Employee may make a request in writing to his immediate supervisor for reclassification.

Such request shall be forwarded to the Executive Director for a final decision within twenty-one (21) days of the submission to the immediate supervisor. An Employee not satisfied with the resulting decision in regard to classification made by the Executive Director may appeal the decision.

17.08 An Employee wishing to appeal the Executive Director’s decision pursuant to Clause 17.07 shall submit the Classification Appeal to Arbitration in accordance with Article 12 - Grievance Procedure.

17.09 The Arbitration Board shall conduct a hearing and may call upon records and interview such persons concerned as it sees fit and render a decision, within fourteen (14) days of the appointment of the last member to the Arbitration Board. The decision of the Arbitration Board shall be final and binding. The Employee may be represented by a Union Representative or a Union Steward at the Board hearing. The Employee may initiate another request for reclassification after six (6) months has lapsed from the decision of the Arbitration Board.

17.10 The persons concerned shall be advised within seven (7) days of the decision of the Arbitration Board.

17.11 Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, the Arbitration Board may not create, or alter classes or class specifications.

17.12 If the recipient of the reclassification fails to respond within the time limits prescribed under Clause 17.07 the appeal may advance to Arbitration.

17.13 The time limits prescribed in Clause 17.07, 17.08 and 17.09 may be extended by mutual agreement between the Parties provided such agreement is in writing.

17.14 An Employee whose position is reclassified to one with a higher rate of pay, shall be advanced at least one (1) increment higher than his previous salary.
17.15 An Employee whose position is reclassified to one with a lower rate of pay, through no cause of his own, shall not have his rate of pay altered from the current rate he was earning on the date his position was reclassified until such time as the regular rate of pay in the lower classification exceeds the regular rate of pay in effect on the date of reclassification.

ARTICLE 18

PERFORMANCE APPRAISALS

18.01 Performance appraisals will normally be completed no more than once per employment year on Employees, and shall be completed by the Employee's immediate supervisor.

18.02 There shall be two (2) copies of the evaluation, one (1) to the Employee and one (1) to the Employee's personal file.

18.03 Except by agreement of the Parties, and except with respect to a Probationary Employee, an Employee's performance appraisal shall not be introduced into an arbitration proceeding by any person.

ARTICLE 19

HOURS OF WORK

19.01 The normal hours of work for Full-time Employees shall be seven (7) hours per day, thirty-five (35) hours per week.

19.02 All Employees covered by this Agreement shall normally receive two (2) fifteen (15) minute paid rest periods in each work period in excess of six (6) hours, one (1) period to be granted before the meal break and one (1) to be granted after. Rest periods shall not be granted within one (1) hour of commencement or termination of a work period.

19.03 A meal period of not less than one-half (1/2) hour and not more than one (1) hour shall be granted to all Employees at approximately the mid-point of each work period that exceeds four (4) hours. Such meal period shall be without pay.

19.04 Normal hours of work, except for Employees hired for or assigned to night assignments, shall occur between 0800h and 2200h. Any hours worked outside these hours shall be considered overtime.

19.05 (a) Employees shall not be given less than twenty-eight (28) calendar days notice of their schedule of days and hours of work. This schedule shall not be changed except by mutual agreement or by fourteen (14) days notice, in writing, to the Employee affected.
(b) The Employer and the Union jointly recognize the necessity of evening work to meet the program requirements of the Employer, and the desirability of minimizing evening assignments to meet the needs of Employees. The Employer agrees to assign evening work on a fair basis, taking into account program needs and other Employee assignments. Where the Employer foresees the need to increase the volume of evening assignments on a permanent basis, it shall, prior to making such increase, call a meeting of the Employee Management Advisory Committee for the purpose of advising the Union of the proposed changes. Such meeting shall normally be called three (3) months prior to the increase. The notice may be less than three (3) months depending on the Employer's ability to foresee the need for change.

19.06 An Employee may trade a work period with another Employee in the same classification provided:

(a) the trade is agreed to in advance, in writing, between the Employees concerned, and a copy of the agreement is provided in advance to the Employer;

(b) the Employer approves the trade in advance, such approval not to be unreasonably denied;

(c) the trade shall not result in the payment of any overtime or other premiums.

ARTICLE 20

OVERTIME

20.01 Overtime is time authorized by the Employer as overtime and worked by an Employee beyond seven (7) hours in a day, on a scheduled day of rest, or, in the case of an Employee not hired for, or assigned to, night assignments, between the hours of 2200 and 0800.

20.02 Overtime shall be compensated at time and one half (1.5X) in time off in lieu for the first two (2) hours and double thereafter, to be taken at a time selected by the Employee, subject to the approval of the Employer. Such approval shall not be unreasonably denied.

20.03 Overtime not taken as time off with pay within four (4) weeks of the date that the overtime was worked may, within the succeeding two (2) months, be scheduled as time off with pay by mutual agreement.

20.04 Overtime not taken as time off under the provisions of Clause 20.02 or Clause 20.03 shall be paid out unless the Employer and the Employee mutually agree to a future scheduling of time off in lieu.
ARTICLE 21

LEAVE WITHOUT PAY

21.01 Where operational requirements permit and with the approval of the Employer, leave without pay shall be granted to an Employee. Leave without pay shall not be unreasonably denied. Request for such leave must normally be submitted at least two (2) weeks in advance of the anticipated date of commencement of such leave, before such request can be considered.

ARTICLE 22

(e) Family illness leave of absence shall be granted to provide for the care of sick or disabled relations or the spouse of the Employee (as outlined in Article 26.03 (a)) or for persons permanently residing in the Employee’s household or with whom the Employee permanently resides. The purpose of family illness leave is to allow employees to access time away from work without loss of pay, subject to 26.01(b) above, in circumstances where an individual outlined above is ill or disabled and requires the attention or care of the employee.

(f) The maximum annual leave specified for each circumstance requiring use of special leave shall not be exceeded. However, family illness leave, bereavement leave, disaster conditions and travel time for illness within the immediate family or bereavement may be granted more than once within a calendar year, with the approval of the Employer.
ARTICLE 27
PARENTING LEAVE

27.01 An Employee may be granted parenting leave, without pay, of up to twelve (12) months associate with the birth or adoption of the Employee's child.

27.02 An Employee on such leave shall provide the Employer with two (2) weeks written notice of readiness to return to work. The Employer will reinstate him in the same position and at the same salary level, without loss of previously accrued seniority, sick leave, and vacation entitlements held by him immediately prior to taking leave or provide him with alternate work of a comparable nature and salary.

27.03 Parenting leave shall not be unreasonably denied.

27.04 Maternity Leave

(a) A Regular Employee who has completed twelve (12) months continuous employment shall, upon her written request at least one (1) month in advance, be granted maternity leave to become effective twelve (12) weeks immediately preceding the expected date of delivery or such shorter period as may be requested by the Employee, provided that she commences maternity leave not later than the date of delivery.

(b) Maternity leave shall be without pay and benefits except for that portion of maternity leave during which the Employee has a valid health-related reason for being absent from work and is also in receipt of sick leave, EI SUB Plan Benefits, or LTD. Maternity leave shall be without loss of seniority. The total period of maternity leave shall not exceed twelve (12) months unless mutually agreed between the Employer and Employee.

(c) A Regular Employee on maternity leave shall provide the Employer with two (2) weeks written notice of readiness to return to work at which time the Employer will reinstate the Regular Employee in the same classification held by her immediately prior to taking maternity leave and at the same basic rate of pay.

ARTICLE 28
ANNUAL VACATION

28.01 For the purpose of this section:

(a) "Vacation means annual vacation with pay;

(b) "Vacation Year" means a period from April 1st to March 31st.
28.02 Vacation Entitlement:

(a) An Employee who has completed less than twelve (12) full calendar months of service from original commencement date shall receive one and one-quarter (1 1/4) work days vacation for each calendar month worked.

Should an Employee take a vacation prior to completion of any vacation year, the vacation days taken shall be subtracted from the total vacation days earned to that date. In no case will an Employee be entitled to vacation days prior to them being earned.

(b) On completing one (1) full year of service, an Employee shall receive fifteen (15) working days annual vacation with pay each year.

(c) On completing five (5) full years of service, an Employee shall receive twenty (20) working days annual vacation with pay each year.

(d) On completing ten (10) full years of service, an Employee shall receive twenty-five (25) working days annual vacation with pay each year.

(e) On completing fifteen (15) full years of service, an Employee shall receive thirty (30) working days annual vacation with pay each year.

28.03 The vacation period shall be at the Employee’s request, and shall be scheduled by mutual agreement.

28.04 Vacation leave may be taken in one (1) continuous period or in separate periods.

28.05 Except as otherwise provided herein, vacation leave in respect of each year of service may be accumulated and shall be taken within a two (2) year period.

ARTICLE 29

JURY OR WITNESS DUTY

29.01 Any Employee required by law for jury or court witness duty shall be allowed time-off without loss of regular earnings during such absence but any fee receivable as such juror or witness shall be paid to the Employer.

ARTICLE 30

GENERAL ILLNESS

30.01 A Full-time Employee shall earn sick leave at the rate of two (2) days per month of employment. The unused portion of the annual general illness may be accumulated to a maximum of one hundred and twenty (120) working days.
When an Employee has accrued the maximum sick leave credit of one hundred and twenty (120) working days, he shall no longer accrue sick leave credits until such time as his total accumulation is reduced below the maximum. At that time he shall recommence accumulating sick leave credits.

Normal salary and benefits shall be paid to an Employee who is absent due to illness or illness in the immediate family, except where the Employee is qualified to receive Workers’ Compensation payment, to the extent of the Employee’s sick leave credits.

A Part-time Employee shall accumulate sick leave credits on a pro-rated basis.

An Employee shall provide medical proof of illness for any absence on sick leave of more than three (3) consecutive working days, when requested by the Employer. The Employer may waive this requirement in the event of a Pandemic or due to a Public Health concern.

ARTICLE 31

NOTICE OF TERMINATION

An Employee is required to provide the Employer with not less than fourteen (14) calendar days prior written notice of resignation if he wishes to resign in good standing.

ARTICLE 32

EMPLOYEES HEALTH AND SAFETY

(a) The Parties to this Agreement recognize the need for and desirability of a safe working environment.

(b) The Parties agree to establish a Joint Worksite Health and Safety Committee which shall meet at least twice per year to consider issues relating to the health and safety of Employees.

(c) The Employer agrees to provide safety equipment where required and install safety devices where necessary.

Health

(a) The Employer recognizes that alcoholism, drug addiction, and mental illness are illnesses which can respond to therapy and treatment and that absence from duty due to such therapy or treatment shall be considered as sick leave.

(b) An Employee, whose work performance is adversely affected by a condition mentioned in (a) above, shall be referred to the appropriate counseling unit.
(c) If an Employee is referred to, or chooses to attend a counseling agency, all records shall be confidential and no reference shall be placed on the personal file.

ARTICLE 33

33.02 If education leave is granted, the Employee's seniority will not be affected.

33.03 Time off for education leave shall be granted providing operational requirements permit.

ARTICLE 34

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND TRAINING

34.01 The Employer and the Union are committed to learning and development for Staff. As part of this commitment, the Employer agrees to establish a Human Resources Development Fund (the Fund). As of April 1st of each year, the Fund will be allocated to a minimum of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500.00), to be administered by the Executive Director. The accumulated fund shall not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000.00).

34.02 The purpose of the Fund is to enable employees to:

(a) access learning opportunities (conventions, conferences, courses, workshops or seminars) that will improve, enhance or expand the employee’s performance, qualifications, skills or expertise in his current position or develop future job related skills, or

(b) access non-credit post secondary learning programs and courses that enhance employee qualifications.

34.03 The parties encourage discussion between the employee and his supervisor to identify learning and development plans and potential learning opportunities where the Fund may apply, as part of the ongoing performance management process.

34.04 However, the cost of job-specific training required by the Employer or legislation cannot be charged to the Fund.

34.05 And because the Employer also recognizes the value of staff training and upon request by the Employee, the Employer may authorize an Employee’s attendance and may compensate the Employee for all costs including fees, tuition, books, required materials, accommodations and other reasonable expenses.
