

Working Short?

AUPE's Working Short/Workload Campaign sub-committee wants to help

The first step to tackling understaffing and unmanageable workloads is to understand, when, where, and why it is happening.

Share your stories with the WSWC subcommittee. Tell us how these issues impact you and the services you provide.

Email workingshort@aupe.ca
Visit aupe.org/workingshort for updates and more information.

Have you seen the updated working short reporting form?

If you have a specific working short or workload issue you need to report, visit the link below and provide as many details as you can.

aupe.formstack.com/forms/working_short_2019

