BARGAINING STALLED – WAITING FOR THE EMPLOYER TO COME TO THE TABLE

Bargaining has been at a standstill since the COVID-19 pandemic disrupted Albertans' day-to-day lives.

With the pandemic ongoing, we have arranged to host future bargaining meetings through electronic video conferencing.

Unfortunately, we are still waiting for the employer to respond to our request for scheduling meeting dates. We will continue contacting the employer to get back to the bargaining table as soon as possible, and we are prepared to take action if they do not respond to our requests.

It's important to avoid listening to rumours during bargaining. If you have questions, be sure to ask a member of your bargaining team or AUPE resource staff to get the facts. Your bargaining team and AUPE resource staff will make sure your voices are heard at the bargaining table now and moving forward.
