

AUPE Environmental Committee Presentation

The following AUPE Environmental Committee presentation/webinar called "Why a Green New Deal Matters to AUPE Members and Alberta". The presentation speaks to transitioning to green technology and the movement away from the burning of fossil fuels and what that would mean to Albertans. It goes into what that would mean to union members and transitioning of jobs and the opportunity for new jobs.

The presentation can be accessed through AUPE under training for the recorded presentation and associated documents or through the following YouTube link.
