

This is the guide used by members of AUPE's Committee On Political Action and staff supports when reviewing and grading candidate responses to the survey. The Committee felt it was important to publish this for members to understand the process.

A: they clearly answered positively, and are going above and beyond what the question was asking.

B: they clearly answered positively with more than just "yes" – elaborated on how or why they agree or even how they will do it.

C: they answered positively but just with "yes"

D: they did not answer clearly, or do not commit fully, or give themselves wiggle room

F: they answered negatively
