ALBERTA UNION OF PROVINCIAL EMPLOYEES

RE: 2022 Wage Adjustment Process

In the event that Alberta Health Services negotiates an increase in 2022 affecting the auxiliary nursing, general support services, professional technical or nursing agreements, the rates of pay in the affected classifications for the Covenant Care agreements shall be adjusted to match the rates after such increases are applied. If the negotiated increase would result in the rate still not matching AHS, the full rate increase shall be applied.

The effective date shall be the date as negotiated by the AHS and its respective unions.

By way of example: If there are rollbacks in the AHS rates, no negotiated general increase or the increase results in a rate that is less than the current rate of pay, the rates in the Covenant Care agreements shall not be impacted.

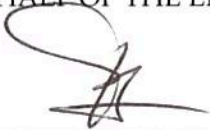

However, if there is an increase in the AHS rates that it will be applied to the rates at Covenant Care the rates will be adjusted to the amount negotiated not to exceed AHS rates for the affected classifications.

For example, if there is to be a 1% increase to the rates in auxiliary nursing, the HCA and LPN rates shall be increased to match the new rates of pay at each step of the grid. Therefore, if a 1% increase is applied to the rate of an LPN at top rate at AHS earning $34.63 it amounts to $0.34, so they will be earning $34.97 after the increase is applied. For an LPN at top rate at Covenant Care who is earning $34.80 their rate will be adjusted to match the rate paid by AHS resulting in a $0.17 increase to $34.97.

Should AHS employees receive an increase in any of their bargaining units in 2022 that impact the classifications as outlined below, the Covenant Care employees would receive the increase to move to the same rates of pay received in the Collective Agreements in which their Classification is found.

The parties recognize the value of meeting prior to the process occurring. The purpose of this meeting is to discuss the process of how new lines will be selected, if layoffs will take place, review the current seniority list, and discuss other relevant factors.

The parties will also discuss the process to be followed for Employees on approved leave of absence or sick leave. Consideration will be given to the principles outlined below.

In the event of multiple layoffs, Article 26 will apply except as modified or clarified below.

4. The Employer and the Union will agree to the date for Employees to select (pick) their line rotation, which shall be scheduled to in a timely manner to meet the implementation date of the new rotation/schedule. If no agreement can be reached to the dates, after consultation, the Employer reserves the right to set the dates.
5. Employees will be scheduled in appropriate time intervals in accordance with the updated seniority list (most senior first) in order to allow the Employee to make their selection.
6. The Employees may select any position in the unit, or program where they currently work that is of the same or lesser FTE.

10. Employees with no available positions would receive their required lay-off notice in accordance with Article 26.
11. The date of implementation of the new rotation shall be determined by the Employer.
12. Based upon the selections by the Employees, the revised master line rotation shall be posted.
