Step I

The Employee shall submit a written grievance signed by the Union on behalf of the Employee to the Employee's principal or designate within ten (10) days of the meeting at the informal step and it shall set out the nature of the grievance, the remedy sought, and the Article or Articles of the Agreement which are alleged to have been violated. The Employer or a committee established by the Employer shall meet within twenty (20) days of the submission to consider the case at which time the Union may make representation on behalf of the Employee. The decision of the Employer will be sent to the Employee and Union Representative within three (3) days of the hearing. Failing settlement then:

11.09 Step IV

Within ten (10) days following the decision under Step III, either party shall notify the other in writing of its desire to submit the grievance to Arbitration, provided the grievance has been properly processed according to the provisions required by the Grievance Procedure. Such written notice shall specify the nature of the grievance, the Article or Articles of this Agreement upon which the grievance is based, the redress sought, and the name and address of the party's appointee to the Arbitration Board.

11.10 NON-BINDING MEDIATION

- (a) Should there be no resolution at Step IV, either party may request that a Mediator be appointed to meet with the parties, investigate and define the issues in dispute and facilitate a resolution.
- (b) If the parties mutually agree to mediation, the Mediator shall be appointed by mutual agreement between the parties. Failing agreement, the Director of Mediation Services will appoint a Mediator.

- (d) The Employer and the Union shall bear equally the total costs of the Mediator.
- (e) The grievance may be resolved by mutual agreement between the Parties.
- (f) The time limits in the grievance procedure and arbitration procedure are suspended when a grievance is referred to mediation.

11.11 The recipient of the written notice specified in Step IV or Non-Binding Mediation of the Grievance Procedure shall within fifteen (15) days following receipt of said notice, inform the other party of the name and address of its appointee to the Arbitration Board. The two appointees so selected shall within ten (10) days of the appointment of the second of them appoint a third person as Chairman. In the event the nominees are unable to agree on a Chairman, the Director of Mediation shall appoint one.

The parties may, by mutual agreement, agree that there may be a single Arbitrator in lieu of a Board of three (3) Arbitrators.

The Arbitration Board shall have no power to add to, subtract from, or modify any of the terms of this Agreement, or any other terms made supplemental hereto, or to arbitrate any matter not specifically provided for by this Agreement, or to enter any new provisions into this Agreement.

11.12 Any grievance involving dismissal or suspension shall be submitted within fifteen (15) days at Step II of the Grievance Arbitration procedure.

11.13 All documentation may be submitted via fax, e-mail, registered mail, couriered or hand-delivered.

11.14 Each Party to the grievance shall bear the expenses of its representative appointee and the two Parties shall bear equally the expense of the Chair.

Internal applicants shall be given preference over external applicants, where all other factors are relatively equal.
- 12.03 Each applicant appointed to a position shall receive a letter confirming the status, classification, FTE, rate of pay, the position, and the location of the position.

- (b) six (6) weeks following the birth of their baby if a medical certificate is not provided.

13.03 The Employee is required to advise the Employer prior to the commencement of maternity leave regarding the continuation of benefit coverage for the duration of the leave. Benefit coverage will be provided for any health related portion of their absence. The Employee will provide medical evidence from their physician specifying the portion of their maternity leave attributable for any health related absence. If an Employee opts to continue their benefit coverage with the Employer beyond the illness related portion of their leave, they must prepay their premiums for the non-medical portion of their leave.

The Employee will be paid within the range for the new position. If no suitable position is available and/or the Employee is not transferred, they may request maternity leave, if eligible, under this Article. In the event that such leave commences within the first four (4) months of pregnancy, which necessitates an absence of longer than twelve (12) months, the Employee may request further leave without pay.

13.05 The Employer will provide top up benefits to eligible Employees on maternity leave in accordance with the Employment Insurance Regulations and subject to the following conditions:

- (a) An Employee may apply for top up benefits during the illness related portion of their maternity leave provided:

- (b) Evidence of payment of Employment Insurance maternity benefits (cheque stub) must be presented to the Employer in order to receive maternity top up benefits.
- (c) The maternity top up benefit will provide the Employee with one hundred percent (100%) of gross earnings less deductions.
- (d) An Employee who wishes to receive top up benefits will apply for Employment Insurance maternity benefits as soon as eligible.

13.06

Parental Leave

Following ninety (90) calendar days of service, leave of absence without pay and benefits to a maximum of sixty-two (62) weeks within a seventy-eight (78) week period will be granted to an employee for parental leave for their newborn or adopted child.

- (a) The Employee will provide as much notice as possible.
- (b) Such leave will commence no sooner than the actual birth or adoption date.
- (c) Such leave will commence no later than fifty-two (52) weeks after the actual birth or adoption date.
- (d) An Employee is required to advise the Employer prior to the commencement of parental leave regarding continuation of benefit coverage for the duration of the leave. If the Employee opts to continue benefit coverage with the Employer during their parental leave, they must prepay the premiums.

13.07

General

If an Employee decides not to return to work and so advises the immediate supervisor, benefit coverage entitled as an Employee, as above, will be maintained for the duration of the approved leave. Where an Employee decides to terminate their employment prior to the end of the approved leave, any prepaid benefit premiums will be reimbursed.

13.08

RE: Certified and Non-Certified Educational Assistants

The parties agree as follows:

1. Any Educational Assistant hired before the date of ratification of the 2020-2024 Collective Agreement will be "green circled" on the certified Educational Assistant grid so long as the employee maintains "Continuous employment" with the Employer. For clarity, the implementation of the certified and non-certified grids shall not result in a loss of pay for these current employees.
 - (a) If continuous employment is not maintained, any non-certified Educational Assistant rehired by the Employer will no longer be "green circled" and will be placed on the non-certified Educational Assistant grid.
 - (b) "Continuous employment" shall be defined as unbroken periods of employment during the normal working periods associated with the position. Continuous employment shall not be broken by any periods of layoff as per Article 22.
2. Educational Assistants hired after the ratification of the 2020-2024 collective Agreement will be placed on the appropriate Educational Assistant grid and step based on their level of training (certification and experience).
3. Certification from a program of at least 1 year in length obtained from a post-secondary, polytechnic, college or university for Educational Assistants, Teacher Assistants or special Needs Assistants shall be considered as qualification for the Certified Educational Assistant classification. Equivalencies will be considered provided they include a practicum component.
4. Once evidence is received by Human Resources that a non-certified Educational Assistant has completed their certification, they will change classification to certified Educational Assistant and the pay adjustment to the certified Educational Assistant grid will occur in the pay period following the receipt of the certificate or diploma by Human Resources.

The provisions of this Letter of Agreement shall take effect on the effective date of the collective agreement and will remain in effect until there are no longer any "green circled" Employees.
