SALARY TREATMENT INFORMATION

The Wage rate contained in the April 1, 2019 to March 31, 2020 salary Schedules/ Grids in all of the Subsidiary Agreements shall be increased in accordance with the schedule below;

Effective April 1, 2020 Salary Schedules/ Grids in all of the Subsidiary Agreements shall be increased by zero percent (0%).

Effective April 1, 2021 Salary Schedules/ Grids in all of the Subsidiary Agreements shall be increased by zero percent (0%).

Effective January 1, 2023 Salary Schedules/ Grids in all of the Subsidiary Agreements shall be increased by one point two-five percent (1.25%).

Effective September 1, 2023 Salary Schedules/ Grids in all of the Subsidiary Agreements shall be increased by one point five percent (1.5%), plus an additional 0.5% subject to the following Gain Sharing Formula:

Gain Sharing Formula:

Alberta's 20-year average (2000-2019) of Real Gross Domestic Product (GDP) is 2.7%. Provided that the "Average of all Private Forecasts for Alberta's Real GDP" for 2023 Calendar Year is at or above 2.7% as of February of 2024, then an additional 0.5% will be added to wages retroactively effective September 1, 2023 for the 2023-2024 Fiscal Year.

"Average of all Private Forecasts for Alberta's Real GDP" for 2023 Calendar Year would be a simple average of Alberta's Real GDP for 2023 across the following independent forecasting institutions:

- Conference Board of Canada
- Stokes Economics
- BMO Capital Markets
- CIBC World Markets
- Laurentian Bank
- National Bank
- RBC Royal Bank
- Scotiabank
- TD Bank

The most recent publicly available forecast for Alberta's Real GDP for 2023 would be sourced from each institution at the time the pay-out determination would be made in February 2024.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING #1 – 12-Hour Shifts

WHEREAS the Parties are desirous of achieving a mutually agreeable method of administering benefits and entitlements for Employees working twelve hour shifts pursuant to Clause 2.02 of Subsidiary Agreement #004.

THEREFORE, the Parties agree as follows:

1. Employees working twelve (12) hours per day pursuant to 2.02 above shall have all benefits and entitlements calculated so as to ensure no loss or gain in Employee entitlements. The Articles listed in (a) and (b) below will be administered in the following manner:
  - (a) Articles 4.03(a), 4.04, 14, 23, 31, 32, 33A, 36, 37 and 38 of the Master Agreement shall be administered so as to provide the same number of hours of total entitlement as would be provided to an Employee who normally works an eight (8) hour shift;
  - (b) Article 18 of the Master Agreement shall be administered in such a manner as to provide payment of four (4) hours shift differential when an individual works a twelve (12) hour day shift, and twelve (12) hours shift differential when an individual works a twelve (12) hour night shift.
2. This Letter of Understanding shall be effective from the date of signing of the proposed Tentative Agreement, and shall remain in force and effect for the term of the ratified Subsidiary Agreement #004 (Trades and Related Services Subsidiary Agreement).

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING #2 - Tools

WHEREAS the Parties are desirous of achieving a mutually agreeable method of administering Clauses 5.02 and 5.03 of the Subsidiary #004 Agreement.

THEREFORE the Parties agree as follows:

1. A master list of required hand tools and bench tools will be identified for each trade by the Employer. These master lists will be finalized after consultation with the A.U.P.E. Local 004 Bargaining Committee.
2. Using the master list as a guide, the senior official at each worksite will, after consultation with the tradesperson, develop a worksite list of required hand tools and bench tools for that location. These worksite lists may be updated upon mutual agreement.
3. The tools listed on the worksite list will be supplied by the tradesman pursuant to Clause 5.02 of the Subsidiary #004 Agreement. Any tools brought by the tradesperson to the worksite that are not listed on the worksite list are not subject to replacement by the Employer.
4. Tools not listed on the master list but required by the Employer will be provided by the Employer pursuant to Clause 5.03 of the Subsidiary #004 Agreement.
5. Tools supplied by the tradesperson, pursuant to Clause 5.02 and this Letter of Understanding that are reported as stolen with accompanying evidence of forced entry shall be replaced by the Employer. Such evidence of forced entry shall be established by police authorities or the Employer.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING #3 - 12 Hour Shifts - Kananaskis Emergency Service Centre

Pursuant to Article 3 of the Master Agreement the Parties agree to administer Subsidiary Agreement 004 to allow a 12 hour shift rotation for this continuous operation.

1. The Parties agree that notwithstanding the provisions of sub clause 2.01 of Subsidiary Agreement 004, hours of work shall be administered as follows:
Employees assigned as Fire Prevention Officers will be required to work a combination of day and night shifts over the eight (8) week rotation as per the posted Kananaskis Emergency Service Centre roster. The normal hours of work shall be two (2) twelve (12) hour day shifts, followed by two (2) twelve (12) hour night shifts, followed by four (4) days off. Employees may be required to start on different weeks of the eight week rotation.
2. The standard work week shall be considered to be 42 hours based on an eight (8) week rotation for Fire Prevention Officers assigned to Kananaskis Emergency Service Centre. In recognition of the additional hours required, a differential of 15.86 (fifteen point eighty-six) percent will be applied. This is calculated based on the hour differential 42/36.25. This additional amount should be considered part of their regular annual salary.
3. The shift schedule outlined is deemed to satisfy the annual hours of work requirement and shall not be treated as overtime. The Parties agree that any hours worked beyond 12 hours per day shall be subject to overtime compensation as per Article 17 of the Master Agreement.
4. Shift exchanges between individual Employees shall require prior approval from the Manager. Such arrangements will require completion of the appropriate shift change form/ memo and be forwarded to the Manager.
