Re: Jurisdictional Review Process

In accordance with the Public Service Employee Relations Act (PSERA) rules and guidelines published by the Alberta Labour Relations Board (ALRB), the parties agree to the following process of communications and consultation regarding all management and excluded positions prior to those positions being filled.

A. The Employer will provide to the Union, a list of the position classifications at January 1, 2008 that are deemed to be excluded from the Bargaining Unit. It is agreed that these positions will continue to be excluded from the bargaining unit and no further consultation with the Union is required.

B. The parties agree to the following:

1. For newly created positions:

The Union will be advised of the Employer's intent to create a new position outside out of the bargaining unit. The new job description will be sent to the Union for review. If the Union does not agree with the classification as determined by the Employer, the parties will attempt to reach an agreement using PSERA rules and the ALRB guidelines. Should the parties not reach agreement, the Employer will move forward with its plan to recruit to the position, clearly identifying that the position is under review. The Union will be responsible for advancing the disagreement to the ALRB within thirty (30) days of the date of the disagreement. Should the Union fail to advance the new position to the ALRB within thirty (30) calendar days, the Union shall be deemed to have abandoned the classification and the position will be confirmed to be classified out of the bargaining unit.

2. For positions being reclassified out of the bargaining unit:

The Union will be advised of the Employer's interest in potentially reclassifying a current bargaining unit position out of the bargaining unit. Should the Employer fail to advance the reclassification to the ALRB within the thirty (30) calendar days, the Employer shall be deemed to have abandoned the reclassification and the position will remain within the bargaining unit.

Addendum

Any Administrative Professional Technical (APT) positions and Exempt Support Staff positions that were previously excluded under section A of the LOU and which are no longer statutorily excluded from the AUPE bargaining unit because of amendments to Public Service Employee Relations Act (PSERA) by Bill 29: Public Service Employee Relations Amendment Act, 2018 effective June 1, 2019 would be excluded from the effect of the LOU and may be reviewed by the Alberta Labour Relations Board upon application and the behest of AUPE. In the event some other representative group, Union or Association makes application for determination or certification, AUPE can object and be proactive by filing the necessary applications to the Board. The LOU does not bar any AUPE applications.

There is a pending consideration by a representative group of Administrative Professional Technical (APT) and Exempt Support Staff in which the position of the employer is a consultative process to designate as academic staff and included in the faculty bargaining unit.

All terms of this Letter of Understanding are ultimately subject to any order of the Alberta Labour Relations Board under s. 58.6 of the Labour Relations Code.
