EDUCATION SCHEDULE

WINTER/SPRING 2024 IN PERSON & ONLINE

The AUPE Education Program is responsible for developing and delivering education courses to members and officers in support of the role they perform in their union.

AUPE

INTRODUCTION TO YOUR UNION Online (Work at your own pace- 2 weeks) and F2F (1 day)

What does the union do for me, and what is my responsibility to my union?

This course will provide you with a basic overview of how the labour movement was integral to lobbying for the legislated rights and working conditions that we enjoy today. You will review AUPE's structure and democratic process.

This course will begin your learning journey with AUPE and help o er opportunities to be active within your union.

Prerequisites: None

INTRODUCTION TO OHS Online (Work at your own pace - 2 weeks) and F2F (1 day)

This introductory course provides an overview of health and safety in the workplace, with a special focus on the safety rights of workers. We review some history of health and safety issues, laws, the internal responsibility system, hazard identification and AUPE support.

You will learn about assessment tools and gain confidence in contributing towards a culture of safety in the workplace. You will also leave the course with access to valuable resources to continue learning about OHS.

This course is for: Members interested in gaining a basic understanding of Occupational Health and Safety.

Prerequisites: Introduction to Your Union

BASIC CONFLICT MANAGEMENT Online (Work at your own pace - 2 weeks)

In this course, you'll focus on basic conflict management skills. You'll look at effective communication as a strategy for preventing negative conflicts and how prevention strategies can be used to address a conflict before it gets destructive. You'll assess your own conflict management styles (strengths and challenges) and learn the range of options available to you in managing your own conflicts when they arise.

Note: While this course will provide tools for conflict management, we will not be focused on your individual conflict scenario during the course.

Prerequisites: Introduction to Your Union

CONTRACT INTERPRETATION Online (Work at your own pace - 2 weeks)

Your collective agreement can be a powerful tool. You have fought for what is contained in your collective agreement and it is important to enforce your rights within your agreement. In this course, you will learn seven steps to reading a collective agreement, examining contract language, and applying an approach to determine contract violations.

Note: This course is not a forum for discussion on individual workplace issues.

Prerequisites: Introduction to Your Union

LABOUR HISTORY: INTRO TO WORKER'S HISTORY Online (Work at your own pace - 2 weeks)

Have you ever wondered why and how workers formed the first trade unions? This introductory course will help you see yourself in the past, to better understand yourself in the present. You will learn how history and activism are integrated, and gain access to the information, traditions, and knowledge that inform our union's present struggles.

Note: The course will not provide a complete picture of the 'jigsaw puzzle of the past,' but rather gives some tools and understanding to continue exploring on your own.

Prerequisites: Introduction to Your Union

FOUNDATIONS FOR UNION STEWARDS F2F (3 day course with homework and mentoring)

As a Union Steward you will be a champion for your worksite, a grievance handler, and help your fellow workers resolve worksite issues through alternate avenues.

In this course, we will cover: Roles and Responsibilities of a Steward, Interviewing Members, Collective Action, Investigations, Disciplinary and Non-Disciplinary Grievances, Legislation, the Grievance Handling Process from start to finish, including Grievance Writing and Presentation. The program will include duty to accommodate situations and exposure to many other workplace scenarios.

You will be expected to attend to complete the pre-reading online module, all three days of training, and complete a homework assignment within a specific time period to continue on to the mentoring component of the program.

Note: This course is not for people who avoid conflict.

Prerequisites: Intro to Your Union, Basic Conflict Management, Intro to OHS, Contract Interpretation and must be a Nominated Steward.

OHS FOR UNION ACTIVISTS Blended (Online - 2 weeks with supplementary live Zoom meetings)

To join an OHS committee or fulfill the duties of a worksite OHS representative, you're going to need the knowledge, skills and values that make a culture of safety possible. But the challenge is growing – many employers put safety at the bottom of their to-do list. And what's worse, Alberta's UCP government has run our OHS legislation through the paper shredder. It's time to rise up and fight!

In OHS for Union Activists, you'll discover the basics of joint committees, and go beyond. We'll explore why you need to file safety grievances, bargain for safety, and organize collective action for power in your workplace. It's all about defending the most vulnerable workers and making sure everyone goes home healthy and safe at the end of their shift.

Prerequisites: Introduction to OHS, Introduction to Your Union

PICKET CAPTAIN TRAINING Online (1 day live Zoom meeting)

Strike? Lockout? Essential Services? Scab? What do all these things mean?

Picket Captain Training is your one stop shop to equip you with the tools you need to be a leader at your worksite in the event of a strike or lockout. Workers have the power to make the world come to a standstill, yet it's our wealthy and powerful bosses who have almost all the power over our lives. Strikes and other forms of job action have always been our tools to shift power away from the bosses and into our hands.

This one-day course will go over everything from the steps that lead up to a strike and what to expect on a picket line, to what you need to do to win.

This course is for: Members who want to act as leaders on their worksite in the event of a strike or lockout.

Prerequisites: None

WORKPLACE POWER F2F (2 days)

When you've challenged your boss, has someone told you, "That's not in the contract! There's nothing we can do about it!"

Have you and your coworkers ever gotten frustrated with the "official channels" blocking solutions on the worksite?

Is your employer driving you wild by ignoring your issues?

Then this course is for you!

Workplace power will give you the skills you need to build collective power with your coworkers to be able to challenge your employer and improve your working conditions and quality of life at work.

Prerequisites: None

DEMOCRACY AT WORK Online (Two day live Zoom meeting with supplementary materials in the Rise 360 environment.)

Beyond union elections and meetings, unions are inherently political organizations. Despite this, many members struggle with a lack of engagement in both AUPE and broader democratic institutions.

Democratic unions are stronger unions; exploring the importance of participation, and your role as an active union member, this course will support you in thinking critically about our existing systems and provide you with an understanding of how to get involved in AUPE's democratic processes.

Prerequisites: Intro to your Union

BARGAINING BASICS Online (Work at your own pace - 2 weeks)

Collective Bargaining is your right as a Union member!

This course will outline collective bargaining and how this right was fought and won. It will provide an in-depth look at how your Negotiating Teams are elected under AUPE's Constitution and provide insight into obtaining a collective agreement under the Alberta Labour Legislation. You will also review the process of Essential Services Agreements and their impact on negotiating collective agreements.

Most importantly, you will discover the importance of exercising workplace power, its impact on collective bargaining, and how you can support your Negotiating Team as you all work towards getting the collective agreements you deserve.

Prerequisites: Intro to Your Union

RETHINKING POLITICS F2F (2 days)

(Formerly Intro to Politics) Politics is not just for politicians. Figure out how you and your union have the political power to make positive changes in your home, workplace, community and the world.

Note: This course is not focused on electoral politics or the political landscape.

Prerequisites: Intro to Your Union
